PRINCIPLE OVER POLITICS

A Reason to Feel Good About Voting Again!

The powers delegated by the proposed Constitution to the federal government are few and defined.

James Madison, Federalist Papers #45

No country upon Earth ever had it more in its power to attain these blessings than the United America.

Wonderously strange then, & much to be regretted indeed would it be, were we to neglect the means, and to stray from the road to which the finger of Providence has so manifestly pointed. I cannot believe it will ever come to pass! The great Author of all good has not conducted us so far on the Road to happiness and glory to withdraw from us, in the hour of need, his beneficent support. By folly & misconduct (proceeding from a variety of causes) we may now & then get bewildered; but I hope, and trust, that there is good sense and virtue enough left to bring us back into the right way before we shall be entirely lost.

George Washington, Letter to General Benjamin Lincoln

SEVEN CORE PRINCIPLES OF THE CONSTITUTION PARTY

1. LIFE: For all human beings, from conception to natural death.
2. LIBERTY: Freedom of conscience and actions for the self-governed individual.
3. FAMILY: One husband and one wife with their children as divinely instituted.
4. PROPERTY: Each individual's right to own and steward personal property without government burden.
5. CONSTITUTION & BILL OF RIGHTS: Interpreted according to the actual intent of the Founding Fathers.
6. STATES' RIGHTS: Everything not specifically delegated by the Constitution to the federal government, nor prohibited by the Constitution to the states, is reserved to the states or to the people.
7. AMERICAN SOVEREIGNTY: Government committed to the protection of the borders, trade, and common defense of Americans, and not entangled in foreign alliances.

When you become entitled to exercise the right of voting for public officers, let it be impressed on your mind that God commands you to choose for rulers just men who will rule in the fear of God. The preservation of a republican government depends upon the faithful discharge of this duty; if the citizens neglect their duty and place unprincipled men in office, the government will soon be corrupted; laws will be made not for the public good so much as for selfish or local purposes; corrupt or incompetent men will be appointed to execute the laws; the public revenues will be squandered on unworthy men; and the rights of citizens will be violated or disregarded. If a republican government fails to secure public prosperity and happiness, it must be because the citizens neglect the Divine commands and elect bad men to make and administer the laws.

Noah Webster, History of the United States
